CHRIS SEILKOP RESIGNS AS CEO OF THE YMCA OF THE GOLDEN CRESCENT

VICTORIA, TEXAS — YMCA of the Golden Crescent announced today that Chris Seilkop has officially resigned from his 7 year post as CEO, effective December 14, 2018.

In his statement, Chris explained that he will be taking over as CEO of the Volusia Flagler YMCA in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Under his guidance, the YMCA of the Golden Crescent has seen unprecedented growth with new facilities in Port Lavaca and Victoria, opening of a new preschool and partnerships with the City of Victoria, UHV, Victoria College, and the City of Edna. The YMCA of the Golden Crescent is better positioned to have a greater impact on our community and future generations than at any time in our past.

Doug Vrazel, YMCA of the Golden Crescent Corporate Board Chair, stated, "On behalf of the board of directors, we would like to thank Chris Seilkop for his 7 years of service to the YMCA of the Golden Crescent. We greatly appreciate his leadership and wish him all the best in his future endeavors".

The Board of Directors is currently working to fill Chris' position once he has departed.

About the Y

The Y is one of the nation's leading nonprofits strengthening communities through youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. In the Crossroads, the YMCA of the Golden Crescent serves more than 9,000 members each year, uniting men, women and children of all ages, faiths, backgrounds, abilities, and income levels. The Y has been a community centered organization since 1902 in Victoria, Texas. We are celebrating 116 years of impacting lives.

We know that lasting personal and social change comes about when we all work together. That's why, at the Y, strengthening community is our cause. Every day, we work side-by-side with our neighbors to make sure that everyone, regardless of age, income or background, has the opportunity to learn, grow and thrive. www.ymcavictoria.org
